Chimes Dedicated At Local Church

Sunday morning, March 7, there was an impressive service at Zion Evangelical U.B. Church in Didsbury, when Rev. T. E. Jossie, conference superintendent and pastor Rev. A. J. Grains participated in the dedication of a set of chimes.

These were given by Mr. J. V. Berscht and his family in loving memory of Mrs. Berscht.

Appropriate hymns were sung and Psalm 103 was read responsively.

The choir, under the direction of Kenneth Sherrick, rendered two numbers, "Crown Him Lord of All" and "Fairest Lord Jesus", both favorites of the late Mrs. Berscht. Rev. Jossie took as his text Eph. 5:19 "Speaking to ourselves in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord." He traced music from ancient times to the present and the influence it has been, particularly as a source of joy and comfort to Christians; bringing harmony and melody into their lives so that even in prison, as were Paul and Silas, as well as in sorrow they could sing unto the Lord.

Mr. J. V. Berscht was not only a charter member of the church in Didsbury but was a member of the choir for many years. How fitting that this wonderful aid to music at the services be a memorial to her.

During the service of dedication the organist, Miss Esther Neufeld, played four beautiful numbers with chimes accompaniment, each one after the congregation response to the dedication, led by Rev. Jossie. He also offered the dedicatory prayer and pronounced the benediction, bringing to a close the remembrance service.

BERGEN NOTES

(From Our Own Correspondent)

The annual election of officers took place at the Bergen Ladies Aid met at the home of Mrs. Roy. Cook recently. Mrs. Bill Scott was elected president. Mrs. E. Erickson vice-president and Mrs. Cook remained as secretary.

Miss Frances Ellis recently entertained a number of young people at a birthday party.

Surveyors are expected in the district soon to start work on the new local power line route.

Mr. Eric Lyle has been a recent patient in the Col. Belcher hospital. Mr. Olie Clark has also been confined to a Calgary hospital due to a serious eye infection.

VISUAL ARTS EXHIBITION AT REDEEMER LUTHERAN

An exhibition has been arranged by the Alberta Visual Arts Board, Edmonton, and the Provincial Cultural Development Act, in cooperation with the Redeemer Lutheran Church basement on Friday, March 19, from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.

As an added attraction this year, there will be a display of handicraft articles, also from the Visual Arts Board. If any artists in Didsbury or area desires to exhibit paintings at this time, or if a person wishes to exhibit handicraft articles, we ask them to contact Richard Reinhardt or Rev. E. B. Fox. There is no charge for exhibiting paintings or other articles.

A splendid crowd turned out to the variety concert at Rugby hall Friday evening and the entertainers are to be congratulated on the fine program.

Red Cross Drive

Now Underway

The local Red Cross branch, in conjunction with the provincial organization, started their annual appeal for funds on March 1.

Knowing the work of this great organization, we ask that when the canvasser calls at your door that you give as much as you can afford and perhaps a little more. If you are missed in the canvass you may send your contribution to G. E. McDonald in Didsbury.

Olds Elks Take Third Game To Oust Ramblers

Letter To The Editor

Dear Sir:

I would appreciate space in this week's issue for publication of the following letter:

Dear Sport Fans:

May I take this opportunity to thank each and every one of you for part and thoughts in the presentation made to Mrs. Cowan and myself at the game, Monday night of last week.

I would also like to take this opportunity to thank our players, executive and committees, all of whom have donated their time and energy, unsparringly, for the one purpose — any possible success we have achieved this past season.

Mrs. Cowan and I sincerely appreciate your gesture.

Yours truly,

Bill Cowan

Westcott W.I. Regular Meeting

Westcott W.I. met at the home of Mrs. John Luff in Didsbury on Thursday, March 4, with 10 members and nine visitors present.

Roll call was a "question box". After the roll call the meeting was turned over to Miss Dixon, district home economist from Red Deer, who gave an illustrated talk on "Baking Secrets". Representatives from Jackson W.I. and the Westcott Juniors, were guests. A good social hour followed.

Next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. J. Robertson instead of Mrs. Levagood's.

75TH BIRTHDAY PARTY FOR MRS. K. GOETZEN

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Goetzen, of the Jackson district west of Calgary, entertained recently in honor of the former's mother, Mrs. K. Goetzen, who was celebrating her 75th birthday. Those present at the gathering included five of her eight children and a nephew and niece, with their families.

Highlight of the afternoon's activities came when two of her grand-daughters, Bertha and Kathy Larson, assisted Grandma in opening her many lovely gifts and cards.

Didsbury Ramblers ended their playing season last Wednesday night in Olds when they bowed to the Elks of that town 8-3 in the third and final game of a best of three series.

The locals went ahead early in the game but were unable to solve Dodd's defence from there on in and missed out on numerous free scoring chances that could have made the difference.

The count was knotted at 2-2 at the end of the first. Elks forged in front 4-2 in the middle session and coasted to an easy 8-3 victory.

Behind the Screen

It was pleasing to note from our standpoint that the local fans, and there was a goodly number of them there, took the loss as true sports and gave full credit to the winners.

Ramblers were the best team by far for ten minutes. However they picked the first ten minutes instead of the last ten to strut their power.

A hockey banquet was held Monday for the team and from all reports it was a very fine evening. The annual players vs. executive curling game followed but at a late hour Tuesday night, official scorekeeper hadn't provided us with details of the match.

Olds went against Ponoka following their win over Didsbury and were eliminated in two straight games by Ponoka Stampede. The Stamps won Saturday night 1-0 and came back to take a close 3-4 overtime decision in Olds Monday night. Reports have it there was no need to fight the ice after the contest.

The antlered crew and their loyal supporters shed enough tears to take care of the job.

All we can say now is — see you next season!

Through The Study Window

By REV. C. C. ARMSTRONG

One of the interesting things about living in a house is the opportunity it provides to the designers to improve on the original work of the architect. It seems, somehow, that no matter how carefully plans are drawn up, some little alteration would be in order. But the need for this does not appear until the whole thing is finished.

Ministers, whose lot it is to travel about from point to point and from house to house, have a varied experience with manse. Each one differs from the last one. Some are designed for large families, and some for small. Many of them are conveniently located next to the church, but sometimes it is a toss-up whether "conveniently" refers to the benefit derived by the minister or by the congregation, or a combination of the two.

No matter about the design or location of the manse. All of them require a certain amount of maintenance. For instance, one of the upstairs bedrooms needed to be done over. So we armed ourselves with buckets and scrapers and wallpaper remover. After we had mixed up a batch of the "remover" we set to work, except for the intervals when we had to unwind the baby from the strips removed from the wall. She is much too young and lively to be wrapped up like a mummy, according to our view of the thing. But she had a lovely time never the less. And incidentally, why doesn't water fall straight down instead of deluging along the arm and dripping off the elbow? If only dry sponges could be given the same treatment — but I mustn't wander off the subject.

Painting is the next thing to be done. We discussed color schemes until dreaming of rainbows at night. Only these rainbows were not colored red, blue and yellow but "Crimson Dawn" and "Spring Blue Bird" and "Oleo Margarine, Grade III." Each new shade seems to require some poetic title, thus adding glamour to the paint brush, daring to the dauber and mystery to the messer (or muser).

The manse is not the only thing that has been fixed up a bit. Some of the old pews in the church basement, vintage 1893, have been remodelled into benches. New doors have been installed on the church, too. Perhaps spring is coming.

Certainly Easter will soon be here. But if the Lenten season is

AGRICULTURAL SERVICE BOARD NOTES

W. K. Snyder
Field Supervisor

Using chemical weed killers under unfavorable crop conditions presents certain problems. Two main considerations are: 1. Date crop seeded; 2. Available moisture supplies. Both these factors have an important bearing upon the use of chemical weed killers.

Many farmers are inclined to think that when seeding has been unduly delayed on account of excess moisture that it will be unnecessary to treat with 2-4-D. Or, again they may feel it is too late to bother using chemical.

Some may consider that the application of chemical will delay maturity of the crop. Let me say that some of the most successful treating of crops with 2-4-D have followed late seeding. Under these conditions both the planted crop and the weeds germinate quickly and uniformly. Three weeks or so after seeding you find a lush crop struggling against a mess of weeds. This is where 2-4-D pays off.

And just a few words about treating crops in any of the districts where rainfall has been limited and growth is backward. Too often the farmer is discouraged to the point that he thinks treating with 2-4-D will be wasted. In most cases the opposite holds true.

A crop under droughty conditions must compete against robber weeds, for moisture. If allowed to go untreated the weeds will win over the crop. Timely application of 2-4-D may help to tide over such crops until rain comes. In such cases it is well to treat at the maximum recommended dosage.

only a season for remodelling and fixing up — it is not enough. Revising without revival is a sorry business. Church property is important, and needs to be well-maintained. But the chief reason for the existence of the church is the spiritual rather than the material, and the building materials deserving chief priority are those elements which make up, within our own souls, a fit habitation for the Spirit. So how about a season of spiritual house-cleaning while we are at it? Repenting is just as necessary as repainting, both for ministers and lay people.

WEDDINGS

EIKELAND — SKAAR

The marriage of Gertrude Florence, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. Skaar of Didsbury, to Mr. Ralph Aunfin Eikeland, son of Mrs. Anna Eikeland of Gahalah, was solemnized Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 17, in the Didsbury United Missionary Church. Rev. John Bergman, pastor of Central Church of Christ in Edmonton, performed the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a dressmaker suit of mauve gabardine. Her accessories were in tones of beige, and a corsage of tea roses completed her ensemble.

Attending her sister, Miss Evelyn Skaar was dressed in a gray suit with pink accessories and pink roses on corsage. Mr. Harold Eikeland of Gahalah, brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Mr. Odin Eikeland and Mr. Ib Bregnbak.

Mrs. Harley Traub played the wedding marches. Rev. and Mrs. Taylor sang "O Perfect Love" during the signing of the register.

After the ceremony, a reception for 50 guests was held in the social room of the Evangelical Church. Mrs. Skaar received in an afternoon dress of navy blue, with navy and white accessories and a corsage of red roses. Mrs. Eikeland, mother of the groom, wore a gray crepe dress with gray accessories. A corsage of pink carnations was pinned at her shoulder.

The bride's table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake. Pink and white tapers and clusters of pink and white carnations completed the table appointments.

Toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. Drisler of Carstairs.

Following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Skaar entertained at "open house" in honor of the newly-weds. Many friends and relatives called to extend hearty congratulations to Gertrude and Ralph.

Leaving on a wedding trip to Great Falls, Montana, the bride topped her wedding suit with a coat of muskrat fur. Mr. and Mrs. Eikeland plan to live in Calgary.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Anna Eikeland, Mr. Harold Eikeland, both of Gahalah; Mrs. Vergy Wernick, Miss Hazel Gouchee, Mr. and Mrs. Skinner, all of Edmonton; Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Fox, Miss Marian Skaar, of Calgary; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Gee, Carol and Wally, of Camrose; Rev. and Mrs. Drisler of Carstairs.

Jackson W.I.
February Meeting

February meeting of the Jackson W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. P. Somerville, with 18 members and one visitor present. One new member was welcomed to the group.

Roll call was answered with each member naming a Canadian place and its origin. Mrs. P. Bird, one of the old timers, who came to the district in 1906, gave a very interesting talk on Cremona's origin.

Several members brought Red Cross work which had been completed since the last meeting.

First and second winners of the bread contest were Mrs. L. Bird and Mrs. W. Felker respectively.

The five-minute talk was given by Mrs. Carl Eckstrand. Mrs. O. Paas gave her annual report on Canadian Industries. "Polythene Plastic" being her topic.

All the ladies joined in the singing of a song, after which Mrs. A. Robertson conducted "the bit of fun."

Mrs. Carl Eckstrand was named to attend the bi-annual conference to be held at Drumheller this weekend.

"God Save the Queen" brought the meeting to a close and a delicious lunch was served.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. L. Hildebrandt.

Objectives and Achievements

While Alberta Pool Elevators is an efficient large-scale business enterprise, it is something more.

It is a creation of the agricultural co-operative movement and as such is closely knit to the men and women on the land who believe in the principles of co-operation.

Agricultural co-operation has two sides which, balancing each other gives the movement strength. One side is the commercial and the other is the social.

The commercial side is to be regarded as the means to the end of improving the living conditions of rural people.

With that objective in view, Alberta Pool Elevators has, over the years, provided surplus earnings to the extent that $15,390,441 has been distributed to the membership in the form of patronage dividends and redemption of reserves.

In addition reserves to the value of $9,530,362 have been distributed as patronage dividends.

Furthermore, the operation of Alberta Pool Elevators has kept handling charges low and provided a high standard of service to patrons.

The social purpose of the farm co-operative movement is to raise the cultural standard of farm people and prepare them to assume their full share of responsibility in the nation's economic life.

Every Pool elevator may be said to be a sentinel guarding the interests of the grain producers in that locality. Each one also serves as a link connecting all parts of a great democratic movement working on behalf of the people engaged in Canada's basic industry.

M.V.B.C. NEWS

The Gospel Service League climaxed its year's work with Sunday School and morning worship service in the United Missionary Church here. All winter groups of young people under their respective leaders did this type of work in various churches near and far. Mr. Alfred Dietz, director of this league for the year, has done a most commendable job. Such organization, in order to run smoothly, requires capable leadership, and this has been so this winter. Kenneth Shauers was the Sunday School superintendent, with Cliff Quantz in charge of the junior division. Earl Reimer was in charge of the morning devotional service, and Miss Joyce Brukholder gave a stirring message to a large audience. Numbers in song were rendered, while Edward Oke accompanied in his usual efficient way, serving as pianist for both services. Altogether the young people conducted the services so that they were quite accustomed to such effort.

Sunday evening the senior class of the College presented a service to a splendid audience. In the absence of President Taylor, sponsor of the class, Mrs. Stüder introduced each one in turn as they spoke briefly about their Christian experience and the call of God upon their hearts. The seniors are, Marlene Shorman, president of the class, Joyce Brukholder, Alfred Dietz, Ralph Johnson, Wayne Kasey and Marvin Walz. Miss Shorman will give a piano recital in the United Missionary Church on April 9. Keep this date open.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Oke and Mr. and Mrs. Neil B. Neufeld were guests for dinner at the College Sunday. The Neufelds and Habermeis had a table for themselves in honor of Donnie's 7th birthday.

President and Mrs. Taylor were visitors in Concord over the weekend with their children, Rev. and Mrs. Agurn Witt, pastors there. Mr. Taylor held a weekend of services for the congregation there.

Mrs. Stüder spoke in Mountain View Church Sunday morning in connection with the Women's Missionary Society of the U.M. Church. She has covered nearly all the churches in the conference during the last couple of months.

And there was a hockey match! This is possibly the first time that the young men of the College attempted this sort of thing. We are proud of them, even though they lost the game. They put up a good game and they faced worthy players that they respect most highly.

Didsbury W.I. First Meeting

The Didsbury W.I. organized in February, met for the first meeting at the home of Mrs. Roger Barrett on March 3, with 21 members present. After the singing of O Canada the creed was repeated.

Roll call was something pertaining to St. Patrick's Mrs. Long offered to do the auditing for the W.I. and Mrs. Barrett donated a frame for the W.I. certificate.

The five-minute talk was given by Mrs. Helen Shannon on the history of the W.I. This is to be continued at the April meeting by Mrs. Jessie Blain.

It was decided to hold a food sale on Saturday, March 13 in Red and White store. The "bit of fun" was given by Mrs. E. Pieper and was won by Mrs. G. Miller. The 10-cent draw was won by Mrs. Inglis.

The next meeting will be held Wednesday, April 7 at the home of Mrs. G. Bittner.
